

Social Housing Horizons

Join us at the networking forum for professionals in the housing sector:

12th July, 2017 10am – 12noon

Knightstone Housing, Weston
Gateway Business Park,
Weston-Super-Mare BS24 7JP

'Social Housing Horizons' provides an ideal opportunity to discuss best practice, identify new solutions for delivery of a better workforce and network with fellow professionals from your region.

Topic for this maiden event:

The Changing Work Environment

- With ever reducing budgets, how can HR and L&D work closer with the business to anticipate training needs and meet business objectives?
- Learning and development requirements of an increasingly agile and flexible workforce
- How can we also continue to develop ourselves?
- The changing workforce - attracting the Gen Z and the millennials whilst still meeting the needs of the baby boomers and Gen X and Y.

Hosted by:

Jennifer Trew- Learning & Development Business Partner, Knightstone Housing

Fiona Sheen, Virtual College, Customer Account Manager

Knightstone Housing - Is a leading housing association in Somerset and the West of England, committed to building vibrant, stable and safe communities where people can make their homes. Knightstone Housing provides services to over 23,000 people in 11,000 homes, and builds around 300 homes a year.

Virtual College - has 21 years' experience in learning technologies and has worked closely with the housing community for 10 years, partnering with CIH, NHF, Housing Ombudsman, Housing Diversity Network as well as the Home Office. It has collaborated with a number of housing associations to develop an online training package that meets all compliance needs whilst also providing learners with sector specific knowledge.
